Community Savings Bank Donates $5,000 to Friends of Ed-Co Agriculture

EDGEWOOD, IA - Community Savings Bank recently donated $5,000 to the Friends of Ed-Co Agriculture.

Friends of Ed-Co Agriculture is dedicated to supporting agricultural education at Edgewood-Colesburg and the Edgewood-Colesburg FFA Chapter by raising awareness of the agriculture industry, providing resources and opportunities for comprehensive agricultural education, and fostering a strong, informed community. Their first mission is to aid the Edgewood-Colesburg CSD in funding agricultural education. With a goal to raise $200,000 to ensure the vitality of agricultural education for three years, while the Friends of Ed-Co Agriculture organization works alongside the FFA chapter and school district to create a sustainable and self-funded program.

"Community Savings Bank is proud to support the future leaders in Agriculture with this donation," said Luke Brady, President of Community Savings Bank. "Investing in agricultural education is planting the seeds for a sustainable future. We are proud to support the Friends of Ed-Co Agriculture's mission to cultivate knowledge, growth, and opportunity for generations to come in our Ed-Co School District."
