EDGEWOOD, IA - Community Savings Bank is excited to announce the hiring of Kevin Baumler as a new Vice President Commercial/Ag Lending for the Garnavillo office.

Baumler will work as a Vice President Commercial/Ag Lending out of CSB's Garnavillo office, but serve customers all throughout CSB's communities. He will focus on developing ag and business relationships, while understanding the needs and issues faced by his customers.

Baumler has over 36 years of experience in the lending industry and over 30 years of experience in the community banking industry. He attended Hamilton Business College where he obtained a degree in Accounting and has a strong background in the farming industry, as his family owns a farm equipment dealership. Throughout his banking career Baumler has worked in an array of different areas including, but not limited to, consumer, residential, agriculture, commercial and trust. In his spare time Baumler enjoys following his favorite sports teams and golfing.

"I am passionate about helping community members by becoming more than a lender to them, but a partner to help guide them to financial success," said Baumler. "I am looking forward to finding financial and tech savvy solutions for individuals and businesses through the products offered by CSB."

More information about Kevin Baumler can be found on CSB's Meet Our Team page at www.csbiowa.com/contact/meet-our-team
