FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Banasik Joins Iowa Bankers Compliance Committee

JOHNSTON, IA (September 1, 2025) – Kevin Banasik, Compliance Officer, Community Savings Bank, Marion, Iowa has been named to the Iowa Bankers Association's (IBA) Compliance Committee. Banasik's responsibilities as a committee member will include providing comments and feedback on state and federal regulatory initiatives, and recommending programs and products that enable banks to better manage their compliance needs.

Banasik has been with Community Savings Bank for over 18 years and has held positions within the compliance and accounting department. He currently holds the position of Compliance Officer. He is a graduate of the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin – Madison, and the Community Savings Bank University Program. He serves as chair of the Compliance Committee at Community Savings Bank and enjoys volunteering in the communities we serve.

"I'm honored to be selected to serve on the Iowa Bankers Compliance Committee," said Banasik. "Upholding strong ethical standards and promoting a culture of accountability are values I'm deeply committed to, and I look forward to contributing to the important work of this committee."

About the Iowa Bankers Association

The Iowa Bankers Association represents Iowa banks and savings institutions. Iowa bankers are committed to the values of honesty, hard work and community service, and have been a trusted resource for Iowans for more than 135 years. Iowa banks offer FDIC insurance and lend nearly $88 billion to help individuals, business owners and agriculture. Nearly 40,000 Iowans work at an Iowa bank, and bank employees volunteer more than 300,000 hours to support local communities each year. To learn more, visit www.iowabankers.com.
